

I just wanted to let the FCC know that I am very much opposed to relaxing the ownership rules. The limits on ownership were put in place for a very good reason and we should not forget that. If ownership consolidation is allowed we are doomed to repeat past history where the press/media feeds the public lies.